

MAJOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL DIVISION

The BEST, NEXT & LAST Teams

The Perfect Playoff Plan is designed to decide an Undisputed National Champion on the field of play. This requires 10 Conferences that have Equal status, size and total strength of programs. These 10 Conference Champions and the 6 second place teams, with the most wins, will complete the 16 team Playoff. For fair & equal treatment each team will play 4 home and 4 away conference games.

The 90 team Major College Football Division (MCFD) will be divided into 3 Groups based on each team's wins percentage in the last 8 Regular Seasons & their record over the 19 years since the BCS.

Group 1 will be the BEST 45 teams with the highest win percentage from the Power 5 Conferences plus Notre Dame. The group 1 teams will play a total of 6 home games each season.

Group 2 will be the NEXT 25 teams including the remaining 19 Power 5 teams after dropping Kansas plus Boise State, BYU, Central Florida, Cincinnati, NAVY and Northern Illinois.

Group 3 will be the 20 LAST teams that include the 18 teams from the Group of Five with the most wins over the previous 8 years plus ARMY & Kansas.
